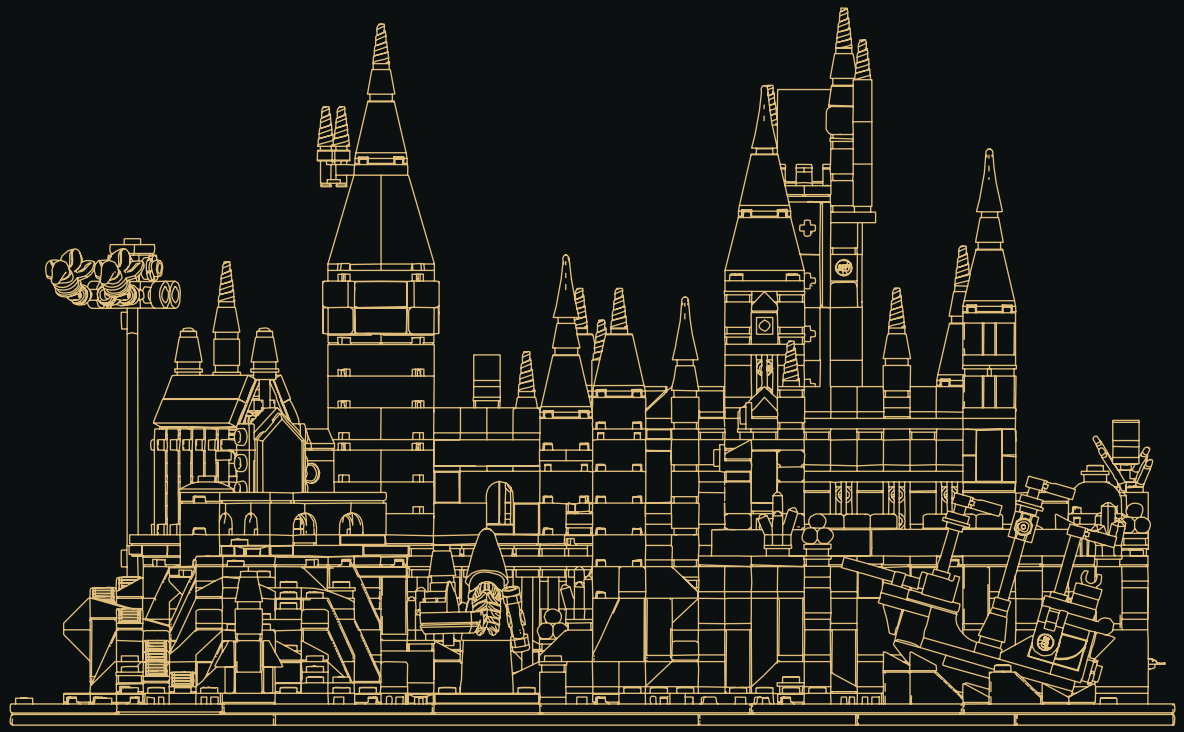
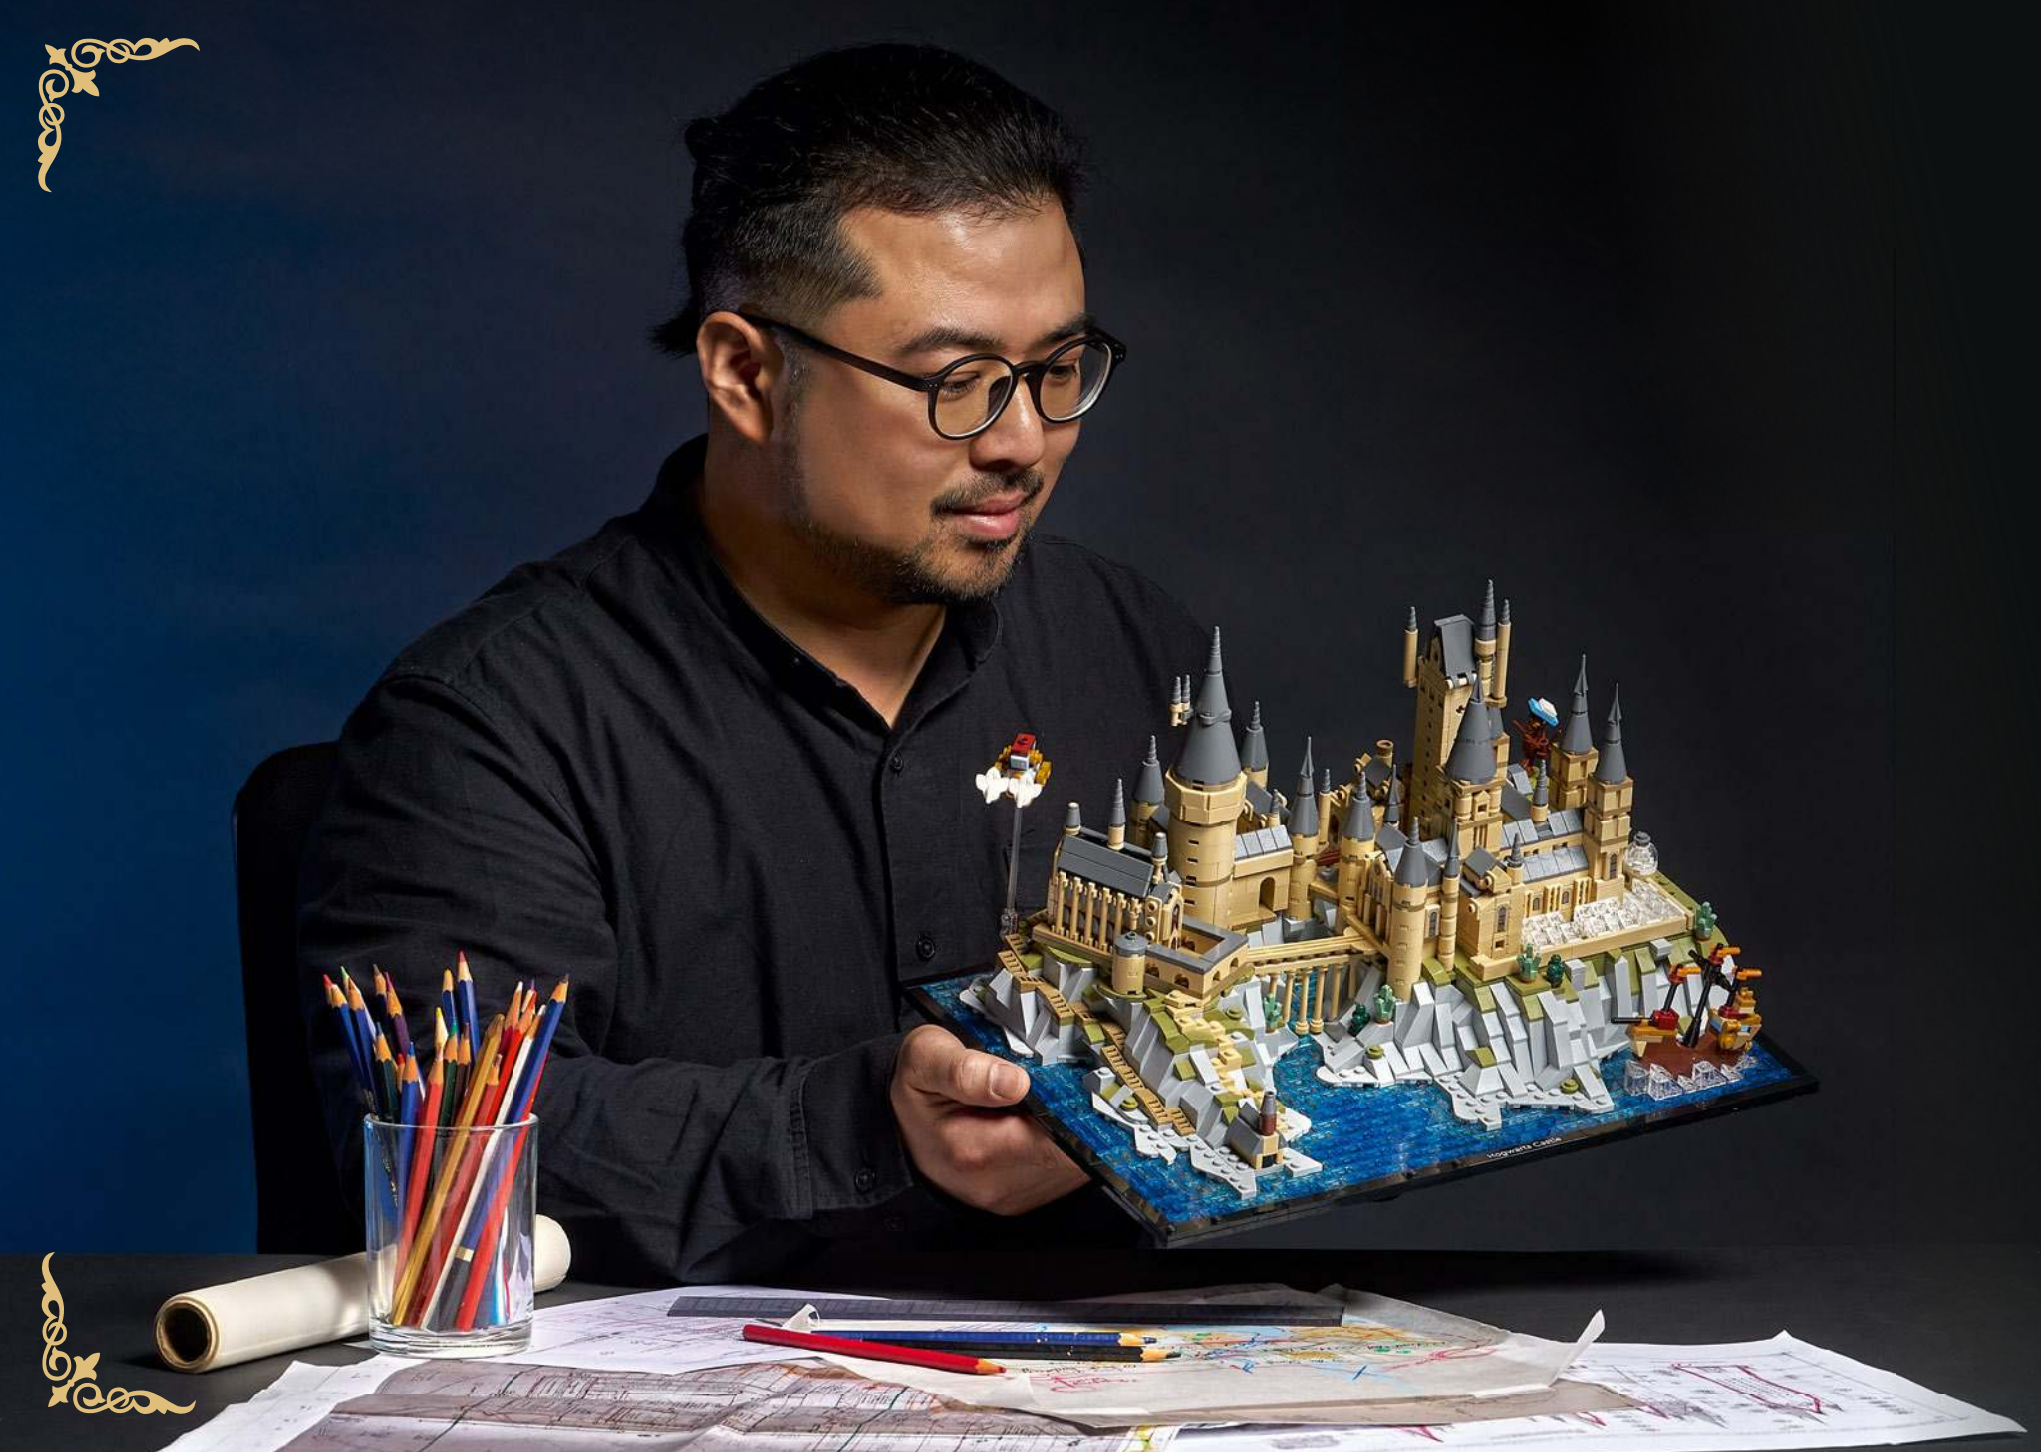
HOGWARTS™ – A (VERY BRIEF) HISTORY

Built more than 1,000 years ago, at a time when our Muggle™ world did not take as kindly to witches and wizards as we do today, Hogwarts™ School of Witchcraft and Wizardry became an architectural, historic and carefully concealed landmark. Its founders, Godric Gryffindor™, Rowena Ravenclaw™, Helga Hufflepuff™ and Salazar Slytherin™ shared a thirst for wisdom and knowledge and with Hogwarts as their foundation, they aspired to nurture and educate new generations of young witches and wizards at the world's best magic school.



THE ARCHITECT OF HOGWARTS™

They enlisted the help of the famous Architect of Hogwarts™ to build a suitable castle in the Scottish Highlands, with four Houses each representing the values of the founders. Over the centuries, the castle has taken on a magical life of its own, with its floors, towers and classrooms connected by moving staircases, secret rooms protected by spells, and the ghosts and living portraits of famous former occupants and headmasters and headmistresses to inspire, guide and occasionally tease young students!



MINIATURE SCALE, MAXIMUM LEVEL OF DETAIL

'I was an architect before joining the LEGO Group, so it made sense to approach this model as an actual architecture case study. I studied drawings, sketch models and a 1:24 scale studio model of the castle used in several of the Harry Potter™ films. We then measured all proportions and translated the original model into a scale that's full of details yet not "too big". Incorporating the bridge and parts of the exterior landscape allowed us to present the castle in its magnificent location. The model also features magical details from several storylines and films, like the three obstacles protecting the Philosopher's Stone™, the Chamber of Secrets™, the arrivals of the Beauxbatons' Carriage and the Durmstrang Ship, and the Weasleys' flying Ford Anglia's rough landing in the Whomping Willow™. Last, but not least, we have the Architect of Hogwarts™ Castle minifigure – after you build this set, you will be a Hogwarts architect, too! Enjoy your stay at Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry!'

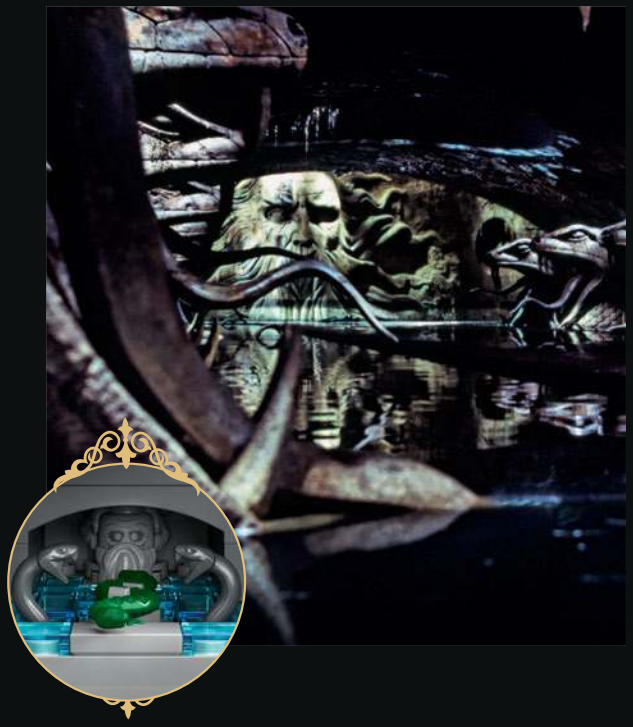
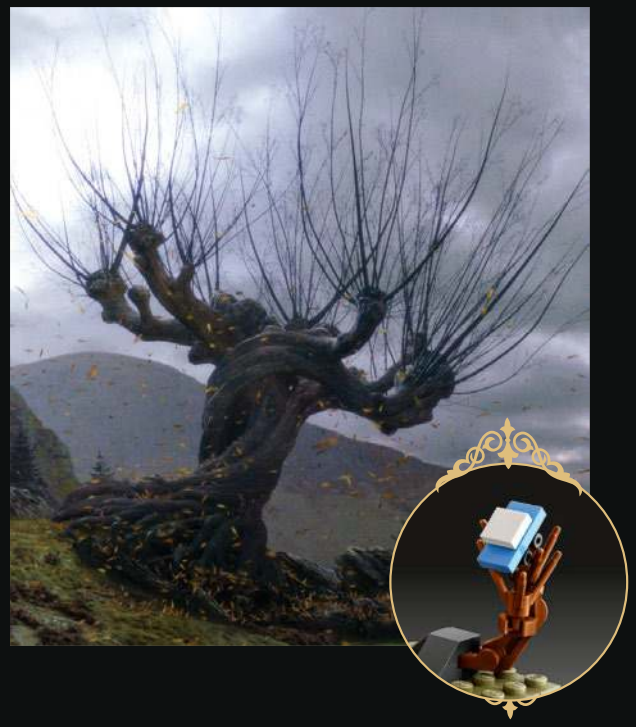
Hogwarts™ Castle





A TOUR OF YOUR SCHOOL

Hogwarts™ Castle towers above its rock foundation overlooking the Black Lake. You can visit the Great Hall, main tower, courtyard, bridges, greenhouse area and the astronomy tower. Deep in the dungeons, the Mirror of Erised is stored away, but don't be tempted to lose yourself in wishful daydreams! Take a Potions class, try your luck with the Basilisk in the Chamber of Secrets™ or follow in the footsteps of Harry Potter™, Hermione Granger™ and Ron Weasley™ in the Devil's Snare room, the Winged Key room and the Chessboard Chamber.

Take the Beauxbatons' Carriage on a scenic flight, rescue the Weasleys' flying Ford Anglia from the clutches of the Whomping Willow™, or board the Durmstrang Ship as it ascends from the Black Lake.

The Devil's Snare keeps intruders from reaching the secret hiding place of the Philosopher's Stone™. It thrives in dampness and darkness. If you get stuck, stay calm, and open your curtains to let the sun in!

In a final act of defiance, Salazar Slytherin™ constructed The Chamber of Secrets™. A huge Basilisk was bewitched to honour his 'true heir' and bring ruthless destruction upon all Muggle™-born.

The Winged Key room was Professor Flitwick's clever construction, as one of the obstacles the Hogwarts™ staff designed to protect the secret hiding place of the Philosopher's Stone™.

If Muggles™ should accidentally come across the Hogwarts™ grounds, the castle will look like an abandoned ruin, and warning signs will discourage them from exploring the site further.
