Uživatelská příručka

The AquaClean filter provides filtered water to protect your coffee machine and to ensure an intensive taste and aroma of your coffee.

Important

Read this important information carefully before you use the AquaClean filter and save it for future reference.

Warning

The AquaClean filter is only designed for use with municipally treated tap water (which is constantly controlled and safe to drink according to legal regulations) and with water from private supplies which has been approved as safe to drink. If an instruction is received from the authorities that municipal water must be boiled, the filtered water is also to be boiled. When the instruction to boil water is no longer in force, the entire coffee machine must be cleaned and a new cartridge inserted.

Clean the water tank regularly.
For certain groups of people (e.g. people with weakened immune systems and babies) it is generally recommended to boil tap water. This also applies to filtered water.

For hygienic reasons, the material of the AquaClean filter is subjected to a special treatment with silver. A small quantity of silver, which is harmless to health, may end up in the filtered water. This is in compliance with the World Health Organisation (WHO) recommendations for drinking water.
If you suffer from kidney disease, are a dialysis patient and/or you follow a sodium-restricted diet, please note that during the filtration process, the sodium content may be increased slightly. We advise you to consult your doctor first before using the filtered water.

When you descale the coffee machine, always remove the AquaClean filter from the water tank. Then thoroughly clean the whole water tank and replace the AquaClean filter.

Philips does not accept any responsibility or liability if the above recommendations for using and replacing the AquaClean filter are not followed.
